Appreciation Reception Sunday, November 20

Join us after worship on Sunday, November 20, as we say "Thank You" to the many HVAC contractors, managers, and laborers who worked over these past months on what was a gritty, dirty, dusty, intensive and often complicated project. We have invited all of these workers to be present with us for cake, punch and some well-earned recognition.

If you are interested in helping set-up, serve, and/or clean up for this event, please contact Laura Rudolph, 485-285, rudyfw@yahoo.com.

Interfaith Thanksgiving Service At Temple Achduth Vesholom, November 22

Members and friends of Plymouth are invited to attend a 7:00 pm interfaith Thanksgiving worship service on Tuesday, November 22, at Temple Achduth Vesholom, located at 5200 Old Mill Road, Fort Wayne.

The 2016 service features guest speaker the Rev. Terry Anderson, executive director of Just Neighbors Interfaith Homeless Network, who will address the local issues pertaining to homelessness. The offering will benefit Just Neighbors IHN.

Thanksgiving Day Worship & Dinner

We invite you, your family and friends to join us on Thanksgiving Day for a Chapel Worship Service at 11:00 am, followed by a delicious Turkey dinner at 11:45 am! Both ham and turkey will be prepared by our own Chef Bill Nicholson.

Please signup on the bulletin board outside the office to register how many are attending with you, as well as the side dish you are bringing.

Share Your Christmas Greetings

Congregational Life Board invites you to save postage and be green this Christmas. Share your greetings with the entire Plymouth family!

Bring your Christmas cards or letters to the designated mailbox in the Folsom Room beginning Sunday, November 27. Cards will be displayed in the Folsom Room during the month of December.

Thanksgiving Offerings

The Benevolence Committee has designated Plymouth's 2016 Thanksgiving offering for the Wellspring Food Bank. Plymouth Church has a long-standing, close relationship with Wellspring, which supports the needs of our neighbors in Fort Wayne's central city. We regularly donate food items through our Share Your Shopping ministry.

This Thanksgiving, we are inviting participation with both food offerings and monetary gifts. Offering envelopes will be enclosed in Sunday Bulletins on November 20, and the congregation is encouraged to bring food items to worship that day, as well, to be brought forward at the designated time during worship. Both food and monetary gifts also will be accepted Thanksgiving Day, during 11:00 am worship.

Special needs include boxed potatoes and dressing, gravy packets, canned vegetables and fruits, especially low or no sodium, and low sugar. Fresh produce such as apples also are needed. Non-perishable items may also be placed in the Share Your Shopping bin in the Folsom Room at any time.

May we give generously!

Adult Chapel Classes

Sundays, November 27,
December 4, 11, 18, 9:00 am

Rev. Ruth E. Phillips will guide discussions based on the UCC Still-speaking Writers' Group Devotional "Wolves and Lambs," which will be visually enhanced by the spirit art of Mary Southard, CSJ.

The Christian Education Board has 60 devotionals available for a suggested donation of $5.00 each.

Quinn Caldwell, author, reflects, "because we think that the image of a wolf and a lamb lying down together (Isaiah 11:6-9) should be comforting, yes, even sweet. But it should also be deeply unnerving . . ." ". . .this vision of Isaiah's . . . threatens something bigger, something deeper. It's the creation of a world not that you want or don't want, but a world so weird you can't imagine it well enough to decide if you even like it."

Advent Sunday Worship Theme

"Wonder of Wonders ~ Revealing the Sacred"

Each Sunday, we will merge the words of Ruth Duck's hymn "O Word Made Flesh Among Us," and the spirit art imagery of Mary Southard, CSJ. Join us each week as we light Advent Candles:
November 27: Advent 1 HOPE
December 4: Advent 2 – PEACE
December 11: Advent 3 – JOY
December 18: Advent 4 – LOVE

From the Senior Pastor

Friends,

A long, raw, and contentious election year has come to an end. Without knowing the results, we knew this day would come. Now knowing the results, with Donald Trump as President-Elect, and our own Mike Pence as Vice President-Elect, many are apprehensive and full of dismay at the unprecedented significance of what has occurred. In the words of an email I received just this morning: “We are...stumbling through this...day, dazed by the brutality of our own democracy and fearful of what it has wrought.”

Few pollsters or pundits saw this coming. What was stunningly underestimated and missed by most was an electoral eruption of fed-up voters voicing contempt at the established political order. That the campaign was often thuggish in manner, indulging racism, misogyny, xenophobia, and general indecency, didn't seem to matter. Hurting people often hurt others. Change, whether blessing or curse, whether welcomed or imposed, is rarely met with glee.

One thing is certain at this junction. The 2016 election signals great change has come upon our nation. And we in the church face great challenge. What behooves us as a faith community is to hold fast to the resources that anchor our lives in hope and trust. I'm comforted by the psalm that speaks: “God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore we will not fear, though the earth should change, though the mountains shake in the heart of the sea.” (Ps. 46:1-2).

I also find solace in prayers that bring unexpected encouragement. Walter Brueggemann reminds us God enacts “governance in ways overt and in ways hidden.” A Vashti Mckenzine prayer also has proven helpful to me: “Inspire all harassed and struggling souls of every race, nation, creed and hue with the assurance that all the forces of good are working for them and are moving them on to peace, health, and wholeness.” When dazed and unsettled by current events, it is good practice to concentrate upon such things.

As followers of the Jesus way, we are accustomed to encountering dangers and snares. Let us be patient when we find ourselves dismayed. Pray that we might catch a breath. And then, let us rise with a faith and hope that cannot be quenched. Let us continue the struggle for justice and peace, engaging in gospel work that is earth wise, heaven bound, eager for love, mercy and joy to prevail in our nation, indeed, throughout all the world.

Sincerely,
John P. Gardner

Luminous Night Service Of Lament and Promise Wednesday, December 7, 7:00 pm

Lament: to express sorrow, mourning; to regret strongly.

Promise: an indication of future improvement

The Advent/Christmas season invites us to be gentle with ourselves and one another. During the darkening days of December, and because of high unrealistic expectations in the cultural Christmas rush, many individuals suffer anxiety, depression, sadness, and loneliness during this season.

Luminous Night Service offers you a safe place to lament, to mourn, to complain, to feel your anger and disappointment, without being told to “get over it.” We may express our grief, anger, discouragement, sadness, and longings, as we also affirm God’s love, compassion, forgiveness, and presence with us. We listen and remember God’s promise “never to leave or forsake” us.

The service is interwoven with song, prayer, scripture, and readings. Candle lighting is included, in remembrance of a loved one who has died, in hope, in prayer, as a symbol of searching for the “light in the darkness.”

Following the service, you are invited to linger in the Folsom Room for hot chocolate and cookies, provided by the Evangelism and Marketing Board.

Come, gather with others who feel the need to replace pressure with peace.

Thank You From Just Neighbors IHN

Many thanks go to all those who participated in the recent Empty Bowls event by having a simple meal of soup and bread, as well as to those who purchased a handmade ceramic bowl. Special thanks go to the following who helped dish up soup, sell bowls, and clean up that day: Ahnee Conner, Gale Cunningham, Sally Felger, Jim and Diane Lasley, and Riet Zwiep.

Plymouth raised $1,042 that will go directly to Just Neighbors Interfaith Homeless Network to shelter displaced families here in Fort Wayne. Plymouth has been a supporter of this agency since it started in 1999. Just Neighbors is the only shelter in Fort Wayne that keeps family units together when they find themselves in a housing crisis. During their time there they receive counseling and support in areas that will enable them to be self-sufficient.

Hear Ye, Hear Ye! Boar's Head Info for You!

By now, every member and friend of Plymouth should have received a Boar's Head and Yule Log Festival patron letter. Won't you please act immediately and contribute to this wonderful Plymouth tradition, if you haven't already done so? For all of its finances, the Festival relies totally on the contributions of its patrons and the free will offerings. We can not offer this special Plymouth gift without you!

Though our costs continue to rise, our patronage has remained relatively constant. In order to maintain the Festival, PLEASE won't you contribute? Be a part of this Plymouth tradition by becoming a patron this season. We would especially invite our new members to become involved as patrons and as audience members. Better still, become a part of the cast or crews! There is still room in the cast for you—all ages!

Established members, please come and enjoy the Festival again—and bring new friends! Although one needs tickets to attend any of the four services on December 29 or 30, at 5:30 and 8:00 pm, these tickets are free. Patrons receive first opportunity to obtain tickets. Each church member family also may have six tickets which will be distributed before and after church services on December 4 and 11. An additional six tickets may be obtained on Thursday, December 15, during public distribution at the church office (Box Office Day) beginning at 4:30 pm. Our only request is that people take only the number of tickets they will use. We love to see the pews filled.

Cast members are reminded of the changed rehearsal schedule beginning at 4:00 pm on December 26, December 27, and dress rehearsal December 28.

Please join us for this special 42nd Festival celebration. Come and enjoy the sights and sounds of the season of joy, peace, and love.

Sophie's Café Women's Support Group

During the holidays, while many of us are celebrating and feeling of good cheer, others of us are struggling more than usual – remembering lost loved ones, feeling depression more acutely in contrast to the festivity, or having more difficulty than usual with alcohol and drugs, strained family relationships, or deeper-than-ever loneliness. If this describes you, or if you are seeking safe, compassionate, and affirming sanctuary, Sophie's Café, a women's support group that meets in the Mayflower Room, Monday evenings from 6:00 to 7:15 pm, welcomes you to our circle.

Not a religious organization or even an advice-giving group, we are a gathering of women of all ages and many different backgrounds who believe that we all live best in community. We are here to speak, to listen, and to give and take support and comfort. Feel free to join us any Monday (except school holidays and snow days). Just enter Plymouth at the Berry Street office entrance, ring bell on wall by office window, and someone will come to open the inner door.
